26th January 2020 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Parish

Jason (Charles) Roe RIP

Jason was a quiet eighteen-year-old member of our parish, but was regularly with us at church. Very sadly he died this last week. His funeral Mass will be tomorrow, Monday, at 1pm here in church. There will also be a vigil for Jason tonight, Sunday, at 7pm. At the vigil we will celebrate Mass, then there will be a time for viewing, and the rosary will be prayed. Please keep Jason's mum, Jen, and Jason's sister, Nicole in your prayers at this most difficult time.

(For those regular parishioners who will be attending either of the Masses: we are likely to have a lot of visitors to the church for Jason's funeral rites, and many of these won't know the responses to the Mass. One way you could really show active concern and love for Jen and her family at this heart-breaking time, is by making the responses at Mass clearly and with decent volume. Sometimes when we have a large funeral and are blessed with very many visitors, the priest says, "The Lord be with you" and there is no audible response; this leaves the visitors confused and can deepen the grief of the loved ones. So please, if you attend either of these Masses, give this gift to Jen and her family and friends.)

Griz Days Parish Garage Sale Saturday, March 7th

Dear parishioners to enable the parish to have a garage sale start bringing in items for recycle to the office. Items may also be brought in the night before the garage sale from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Friday night, March 6th. We will have a garage sale Saturday, March 7th at The Fernie Family Centre from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Celia's pies will for sale, and hopefully there will be a selection of bake goods to choose from. Coffee, muffins and perhaps other items will be available for a donation. It is only the support of parishioners that cause parish events to happen, once again, thank you for your cooperation.

Ensure All Candles are extinguished

Just a little practical reminder: all the candles in the church must be extinguished when the church is empty. This means that the last person out must check that all the candles are blown out. We have had two incidents lately when candles have been left burning into the night. This must be avoided at all cost.

Cathleen Sonntag Birthday Gathering

Please join us to celebrate Cathleen's 80s birthday on Sunday, January 26th after Mass at The Holy Family Centre in the coffee room.

2020 Offertory Envelopes

Parishioners may now please pick up their 2020 offertory envelopes from vestibule of the church. If you were not assigned a box, there are extras. We recommend you use them for income tax purposes. In order to update our Parish list, please put your full mailing address on the first envelope you use.

From the Catholic Women's League

The CWL is selling a picture booklet as a fundraiser for the dishwasher. It includes pictures of our church with Psalms and Bible verses. Also shown on the back cover is the history of our parish. The price of these is $15. An order form has been placed on the table in the vestibule of the church.
